

Creating a Safer Work Environment

Can we really make that much of a difference to the accidents we have in our forest industry?

Let's talk about it!

Communications are an extremely important part of any Safety Program....not just through our OHS meetings and supervisors ...but with each other. Yes, we “can” make a differencebut only if we actively pursue it...only if we talk about it and live it ...every single day!